Product Description:

The Aston Martin DB3S Sportscar - Portfolio

A limited edition of 75 sets of prints of paintings by Jeremy Dickinson, signed & numbered by the artist, presented in a clothbound lined portfolio containing seven prints (350mm x 500mm) depicting the body styles of the DB3S. Only 31 examples of the DB3S were ever built, but it became a favourite car of all who drove it - its voluptuous lines remain a mobile monument to the glory days of British sports car racing. The first and only book ever published exclusively on this most beautiful and successful car which symbolised the excitement, style and fun of car racing in the 1950s in the company of Moss, Salvadori, Collins, Parnell and Brooks).

This would make an exquisite gift for any Aston owner or enthusiast.
