Product Description:

Aston Martin Zagato-Special Leather Binding

A unique book about an exceptional car, published in 1998, the first book ever dedicated to the Aston Martin Zagato covering the history of Aston Martin, DB4, Zagato, the design production and subsequent racing histories of the cars. Stephen Archer researched the individual histories of each of the 20 original Zagatos and relates for each car, its specification, modification, owners, details of usage, status and condition. Simon Harries places Zagato within the historical progression of design and coachbuilding in Italy.

This very special volume is hand bound in black morocco goatskin with an engraved plaque, inscribed with either a special book number or any other dedication, and encased in a silver buckram drop-back solander box with an actual Zagato badge on the front of the box. Includes a set of four prints of the Zagato by Ercole Spada.

For the serious collector only, this is the ultimate book about the ultimate Aston Martin!

Comprising 400 pages, measuring 290mm x 330mm and obtaining over 400 photographs.
