Product Description:

The Aston Martin DB3S Sportscar - LEATHERBOUND Edition

Only 31 examples of the DB3S were ever built, but it became a favourite car of all who drove it - its voluptuous lines remain a mobile monument to the glory days of British sports car racing.

The first and only book ever published exclusively on this most beautiful and successful car which symbolised the excitement, style and fun of car racing in the 1950s in the company of Moss, Salvadori, Collins, Parnell and Brooks)

By Chris Nixon Original photography by Richard Newton Limited to just 75 numbered copies in a two book set, each bound in embossed green leather and presented in a buckram drop-back protective case. This is without doubt one of the finest Aston Martin volume's available today and this leather-bound copy is the ultimate version. It would make an exquisite and rare gift for any Aston owner or enthusiast.
